TREK AFRICA HUNTING

Your Premium Hunting Safari Outfitter in Southern Africa

About Us

Mario Tinkler & Charles Robertson

Mario hunted his first animal, a common blesbuck, at the age of 16 and since his passion for hunting only grew.

At the age of 21 Mario obtained his Dangerous Game License in South Africa and was a Registered Outfitter in the Free State after he completed his PH course with the Johan Calitz and Kobus Schoeman PH Hunting School.

Mario hunted Botswana and Mozambique for 8 years, and returned to South Africa where he hunted for more than 10 years, he also accompanied lots of clients on big game hunts to Namibia. His experience and passion for the African terrain, is what sets Trek Africa apart.

Charles took his first Bushbuck as a young boy on a family dairy farm in the Southern Cape of South Africa. Ever since that first hunting trip he was hooked and started reading hunting stories of a wild and mysterious Africa. His romance with hunting knew no end; he grabbed every opportunity to be outdoors trekking after something wild in the African bush. It was inevitable that his love for hunting would eventually lead to trekking after dangerous game.

It's in this pursuit that Charles met Mario on a very tough buffalo hunt. The buffaloes were extremely elusive and Charles was only offered one shot - 3 hours before dark on the last day. The shot was taken but unfortunately did not kill the buffalo. Mario and Charles trekked after the buffalo well into the dark of night in very dense shrub, until they eventually had to give up on the chase.

Many tears later and well into this night filled with the pain of a wounded buffalo that got away, the pair realised that their dreams of a mysterious Africa, filled with uncertainty and adventure is 100% aligned. It was at this moment that the dream of Trek Africa Hunting was born...

Both Mario and Charles are Professional Hunters, and when you hunt with Trek Africa, their love for the animal kingdom and the wildlife of Africa, amongst which they were born and raised, is clearly visible.

Plains Game

Southern Africa has long been regarded as one of the world's most popular trophy hunting destinations, especially for plains game hunting. While some hunting grounds are located in provincial game reserves, some of the hunting occurs on private reserves. A true success story of how hunting contributes to conservation.

Based on our professional advice and guidance and knowledge of the species and terrain, you have the option to choose the area(s) in which you choose to hunt, the list of trophies you wish to pursue, and the duration of your hunting trip in Africa.

Botswana

The landlocked quintessential African country of Botswana has for many years lured hunters from all over the world with promises of a magnificent trophy Elephant bull, and there is nowhere else on the planet where you can experience the adrenaline rush of following a Bushman tracker on the track of your first leopard.

Namibia

Although only marginally larger than Texas, Namibia offers exceptional opportunities for hunters of any experience level with a focus on fair chase, ethical hunting. Namibia's government strongly supports wildlife utilisation, and their constitution is the first worldwide that makes provision for sustainable use of the natural and living resources in the country. They know that trophy hunting plays an integral part of conservation.

Zambia

Zambia, a wonderful destination with very varied species. Your commonly sought after game hunts includes Lions, Elephants, Leopards and Buffalo, with large amounts of top-trophy plains game species.
